

Jagdish K. Gupta M.D., F.A.C.P., F.A.C.G.

Dr. Gupta is a committed and highly regarded physician with a history of professional achievement and humanitarian philanthropy. Born and raised in Hissar, Haryana, India, he completed his medical training at the All-India Institute of Medical Sciences in New Delhi, with the class of 1966 with distinction. He completed his residency and fellowship training at Long Island College Hospital (LICH). He is a diplomat of the American Board of Internal Medicine and the American Board of Gastroenterology. An Assistant Clinical Professor at SUNY Health Science Center in Brooklyn, Dr. Gupta has served as a role model and a mentor for a generation of young physicians who aspire to combine his clinical excellence with sensitivity and compassion towards patients and their families. He has been serving the Brooklyn Community for the last 45 years. He has been actively involved in Organized Medical Societies leadership at the Kings County and New York state Medical Society level for a long time. Recently on May 25th, 2022 he was inducted as 174th. President of the Medical Society of County of Kings and recognized for his 50 years graduation anniversary from the Medical School.

Through innovative research exploring the links between gastrointestinal and neurological diseases, Dr. Gupta has made his mark upon medical literature. In addition to his many contributions to peer review journals, he has co-authored chapters in many medical textbooks. As a researcher dedicated to the detection, prevention and treatment of GI disorders including cancer, he has been recognized and awarded numerous teaching awards. He has been on the TOP DOCTORS list of Castle Connolly for more than twenty years, consecutively and also has been designated as SUPER DOC by New York Times magazine for three years.

Dr. Gupta's commitment to leadership is an inspiration to many. He has served as President of the Medical staff of LICH and as a member of its Board of Regents. For his commitment to teaching, professional achievements, community services and leadership, the Long Island College Hospital bestowed the Spring Ball Honoree 2002 Physician of the Year Award upon him. He is particularly proud of his longstanding involvement in American Association of Physicians of Indian origin, Queens Long Island chapter. At present, he is serving as the Chairman, Board of Trustees of AAPI-QLI. He is also very active in National AAPI and AAPI Charitable Foundation as Board of Trustees serving as the Finance Treasurer.

Dr. Gupta has been one of the founding members of his Alumni Association, AIMSONIANS of AMERICA and served as the chairman of Golden Jubilee Celebrations held in New York in 2006. Successfully serving in the various roles as Secretary, Vice President and then President for two years each, he is now serving as the Chairman of Board of Trustees of AOA.

Within the Indian Community Dr. Gupta has served on the Board of Nargis Dutt Memorial Foundation and has been privileged to serve as its President, fundraising large amounts during his tenure to sponsor many charitable projects in India. The Board of Directors of Nargis Dutt Memorial Foundation recognized his contributions with a LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD in 2006. He has been very actively involved with many community organizations in Long Island. He has served as President of India Association of Long Island (IALI) in 2010. He also serves on the Board of Trustees of the Hindu Center. He has been recognized several times for his outstanding services to the community. Most recently he was appointed an Honorary Police Surgeon for his patriotic dedication to the New York's finest.

Above all, Dr. Gupta is a loving husband to his wife Meena and father of three children, Drs. Anu, Srishti and Vishal and grandfather to Sia, Kabir, Som and Sai.